“ My memories are too numerous to list. It doesn't seem possible that she is gone. She will be missed

“ My memories with Bett are countless. All of them precious. Not one bad memory. My favorite one is the time we took Boo and Misty (Our oldest children) to the country boy drive in in Big Stone Gap, Va. Boo couldn't say country boy so he called it the "Crunchy Boy" and it stuck for many years. We never ha money so we took them for ice cream whenever we could. Those were the good old days. God speed my sweet sister.
