“ Cheryl, my cousin and my friend. I always thought the world of her. She was with me different times in my life when I was so sick. I felt comforted by her prayers that were so powerful. She held my hand so many times, one being when we lost our only daughter, Candy. I was given 5 years to live, but only God knew when my time on earth is up. I look forward to seeing Candy & Cheryl again when God does call me Home. R.I.P. Cheryl & Candy
