“ I hadn't seen Don in quite a while didn't know he had cancer that long I wanted to visit him but never got around to it medical problems myself for last couple years . Don was a good man of God he lived it he also pastored our little Church IDA Baptist located in the Speers Ferry community we had lots of good services there . I know he will be greatly missed but he will be in heaven prayers for all the family and Darlene .

“ Mr. Estridge was one of the nicest, kindest men that ever graced this earth. He was always helpful at the post office and willing to offer a smile as he served the public, a trait that is missing in so many industries today. Thank you for your service, your humility and your dedication to Christ as you finished this journey of a life well lived. Blessings and prayers to the family at this time.
