“ So very sorry in the loss of both Frank and Sarah. We shared many memories of going to church together. Both were a blessing to our precious church Ayers Chapel. We were allowed to sit in heavenly places with our friends and loved ones. We know that beyond a doubt they are together once again. Tweety and family we will always remember and love you and family. We will one day be together again. God bless and keep you my friend.

“ Frank. My favorite memories of you are the ones when you, Harold, Henry, and Bert visited us when we were young children at mom's and dad's. I remember that Debbie was your favorite, but that was ok. I loved you
