“ Just wanted to say I wish that I was able to be there with you all. Your family has always been family to me and I am very lucky to have that. Like most of you I was in shock too, but we all know that God's timing is perfect. I heard someone say recently that we do not say that we lost Hubert, because to lose something is to not know where it is, and we certainly all know where he is today. Praying for you all.

“ Janie, Avis, Alma ,Amy and Avery, We also feel the loss of Hubert, whom we loved as a friend and brother in the family of God. We know from his life, his testimony, and his faith in God exactly who he is with today. Hubert was a wonderful man, and we sympathize with you.
