

Jack D Sizemore

May 12, 2018

Big Stone Gap, VA

Jack D. Sizemore passed away peacefully on Saturday May 12, 2018 at Asbury Place at Steadman Hill in Kingsport, TN. Jack was born on February 29, 1936 at Derby, VA and grew up in Big Stone Gap, Virginia. Jack graduated from Big Stone Gap High School in 1954. He attended Appalachia State Teachers College, now Appalachian State University, in Boone, North Carolina and graduated in 1958 with a BS degree in Science and Physical Education. He obtained a Master of Education degree from the University of Virginia in 1966. Beginning in 1958, he taught biology and general science at Appalachia High School for 32 years. He was also involved with the Adult Basic Education program in the Wise County area from its inception in the late 1960s and continued to work with the program for several years after his retirement from active teaching.

Jack is survived by his wife of 57 years, Brenda (Tommie) (Wolfe), of Big Stone Gap, VA and their daughter, Lisa Kirk and husband, Richard of Las Vegas, NV. A memorial service will be scheduled at a later date.
