“ While I haven't seen Jim since he retired, we were able to connect via Facebook in recent years. I considered Jim as a valued coworker even though our places of employment were hundreds of miles apart. He in Joy Duffield and I in Joy Franklin PA. He was one of the best and commitment to quality and his willingness to share ideas with me so continual improvement of the Joy product could be implemented to the advantage of the customer. But through our work connection we also developed a friendship that I will always remember. Prayers and thoughts go out for his family and friends.
