“ It still doesn't feel quite real. I don't think it ever really will. You've gone too soon while even doing most things right. Knowing that even makes this more of a tragedy than it already was. I'm sorry you're not here; if I remember correctly you always enjoyed the turning of a New Year. I miss you.

“ We are heartbroken and we cannot imagine how Morgan and the Deitz family members must feel. We loved Allen he was always so kind. My husband wanted to add he is really going to miss his workout partner. Allen worked so hard to stay fit and healthy. Fly high Allen. You will be missed. 🤍🙏

“ A memory: When Allen was a little kid? The three of us (Allen, Brad, and myself) played outdoors a lot (before and after the Nintendo). Allen and Brad had some kind of secret detective game going on that was just between the two of them (I think they called it Mika and Mika or something like that), and I think I was often part of a game (whatever I was doing being investigated); I didn't know what else of a role I played in it. But they would often giggle and take off when I'd ask them what they were doing following me around and acting like I couldn't see them. I brought this memory up to him not long ago before all this happened and he could still talk and we had a laugh about it.

“ My condolences to Larry, Crystal and all of Allen's other family and friends. I remember how funny he was in school. I remember when we were growing up how nice and well mannered he was. I won't ever forget him.

“ Watching you grow up to be a fine young man. Being a great, loving and caring father, overcoming any obstacle that stood in your way. My memories will always remain, of a nephew who never stopped, never quit. I love you bub!

Well little brother it not the way I thought things would work out. You were never the kind to ask for anything from anyone. I enjoyed being your uncle and watching you grow into the man you became. You definitely lived up an surpassed my expectations. I love as is miss ya pal.
