“ It is with deep, deep sadness that I learned of our beloved Lois' passing. How I wanted to see her again, hear her laugh, feel the warmth of her hug. Lois was, and always will be, our (my sister, Phyllis, and me) third "sister". The memories from our childhood are still strong. Those days in the holler in Keokee will never fade. Dear Lois, your spirit will live on inside my memories. Rest in peace. All my love, Sis. Reatha Clark Robertson
