“ Milton had a huge impact on my life and was a friend to me when I felt very alone in the world. He was so accepting and kind. Although I hadn't talked to him in years I thought of him often and will miss him. I will never forget the impact he had on my life.

“ I only had a sister growing up, so I had to find my own brothers, and Milt was chief among them. We grew up about a half mile from each other and we were in bands together for ten years. Milt was the sweetest, humblest, most genuine person I have ever known and I have no idea how the universe can go on with a Milton shaped hole in it. I saw Milton last on Easter Sunday 2013 and it was just like any other time we got together: we laughed, we busted on each other, we talked about music and I played him the newest record from my band in Asheville and he told me it needed to be heavier. When we committed Milton to the earth last week, we allowed it to claim a soul brighter than it had any right to hold, and I don't believe it did--Milton Kinsman Stapleton will be there anytime someone is genuinely kind, anytime someone goes out of their way to help someone else, or anytime a kid picks up an instrument for the first time and feels like they can change the world with it. Rest well my Brother, you are so, so missed.

“ Milton was a very sweet, caring guy! I remember him when him and my mom worked together at CVS. He used to hug me when I came in to see mom. He will be greatly missed

“ There was just no one else like Milton. He touched so many lives with his wonderful personality and truly caring nature. No matter how my day was going, Milton could always bring a smile out of me. He was adored by so many. Milton made the world a better place just by being himself. God Speed Milton. We'll see you again one day. My sincerest condolences to all of Milton's family and friends.

“ Milton was one of a kind. He was the type of person who always had a nice gesture for anyone he came in contact with. He saw the positive in the most negative of situations. I will always remember how no matter where he was or what kind of schedule he was on, that he would take time out to stop and actually have a conversation with me. He was just the type that genuinely cared for those he knew. I am very saddened by his sudden death, but I assure his friends and family that although he is no longer here in the physical sense, his presence will always remain here on earth for the amazing, talented, kind, charming, and unique individual he was. Fly High Milton! My condolences to his family and friends.

“ Milton was a great guy who had a huge part in my teenage years. He was a kind soul that never spoke ill of anyone and always took time to show you that he cared about you. I lost touch with Milton many years ago, but it still floored me when I heard the news because of the impact he had on myself and so many of my friends back in high school. My deepest sympathy goes out to his wife and daughter and all the other people out there that Milton touched during his short time on this earth. He will not be forgotten.
