“ My deepest sympathies to Mr Gilley Sr. Mrs Patsy and Mr. Wayne were our neighbors until Mr. Wayne’s death. Mrs. Patsy and I would go out to eat and sight see. My second drive up with her 1st Mr. Wayne’s funeral 2nd to visit Big Stone it’s where I met Mr. Gilley Sr he was so kind treated me to their favorite Mexican restaurant. She had the sweetest smile we laughed so much whenever we ate out or went sightseeing. After Covid we had not spoke in a while I’m heart broken reading this. Rest well my friend. My Condolences to you Mr Gilley Sr. And family.

“ Patsy and I dated in the early 70's. I took her to the county fair determined to win her a couple stuffed animals. For some reason I could not win anything. The harder I tried the more I missed and the more Patsy laughed. It was embarrassing for me but hilarious to Patsy. She had a blast laughing at me. Such a pretty girl. A very pretty girl. Rest in Paradise Patsy!
