“ There are so many loving memories with my sister that i hold dear in my heart like the silly things we used to do when we young, all the late night talks,just enjoying all the times we spent together young and old. She was a lovely lady inside and out and she loved her family with all her heart, therees nothing she won't have done for them. She was loved very much and will be missed!
With all my love your Sister Teresa!

My sincerest sympathy to each of you as you mourn the loss of such a wonderful lady. Losing someone we love is heartbreaking, there is comfort knowing heaven has gained a most sweet angel to watch over everyone.
