

Queen Ester Bossard

July 29, 1942 - August 17, 2018

Big Stone Gap, Virginia

Queen Ester Bossard transitioned to her heavenly home on August 17, 2018 at Heritage Hall Nursing Home in Big Stone Gap, VA.

Ms. Queen, as she was fondly known by all, was born on July 29, 1942 in Dante, Virginia to Rev. E.G. and Alberta Bossard. Ms. Queen moved with her family to Pennsylvania where Rev. Bossard worked and pastored for several years and where Queen accepted Christ at age 14. Ever since that time, she has been on the battlefield for the Lord.

Ms. Queen was deeply rooted and grounded in her faith and carrying on her spiritual heritage, as she loved to speak to people about God's love and faithfulness. Ms. Queen was a talented piano player and loved dearly her ability to crochet and knit. She was always so willing to pass along her handmade gifts to others and to sing the beloved spirituals as she played the piano from her well-worn hymnal. Ms. Queen never met a stranger and was a blessing to all that made her acquaintance.

Ms. Queen is preceded in death by her father, E.G. Bossard and her mother, Alberta Bossard, along with her brother, James Bossard. Leaving behind to cherish her memory are her brothers, George Bossard, Thomas Bossard, countless nieces and nephews and other family, along with a multitude of friends who will miss the earthly blessing that was Queen Ester Bossard.

A Celebration of Life Service will be held at 1 pm Wednesday, August 29, 2018 at First Baptist Missionary Baptist Church located at 610 Wyandotte Avenue, Big Stone Gap, Virginia officiated by Rev. George Bossard and Rev. Childress. The family will receive friends at the church from 11 am until 1pm before services. Burial will follow in the Oak View Cemetery, Big Stone Gap, VA.

The family has requested that in lieu of flowers, monetary donations may be made to Roy A. Green Funeral Home, Appalachia, VA in Ms. Queen's name.

“ saddens my heart to hear Queenie has passed away but my heart is also filled with joy because she was ready. she was full of love for God and she loved everybody. i have so many memories of her talking to me and others about Christ. then she would start preaching and let me tell ya she did a good job with that. she Praised God daily and i enjoyed her talking to us about Jesus.. and i loved seeing her knit i think we all had given her yarn or knitting needles and she always appreciated it cause she truly enjoyed knitting..and she would sing praises to, Queenie i know you are singing and dancing and so happy. praying for the family God Bless you

“ Working at the nursing home was a joy because of queenie. She was always sitting in the dining room with her knitting & song book singing or playing the piano. Queenie would come to the door wanting coffee or juice or potato chips. She loved watermelon & grapes & chicken & dumplings. She was always giving God praise & witnessing to others about her faith. Queenie u will be missed but I will see u again. For now I know u r singing & walking with jesus. Queenie u saw jesus & He took your breath away & the heavens opened up to welcome u to your home.

Love in christ Jesus
