“ Faye, Pamela and Family, Our prayers are going out for you. God grant you peace in this time of loss. Ralph was a fine man who had many values. He valued his family, friends, job and his time alone with his many books. He loved to read. Each time he came to the job site to pick up Faye he would come in, take a seat and always had a book in his hand. I believe he was the staunchest supporter of the C. Bascom Slemp library in Big Stone Gap. He loved to talk to people. He shared his many views and listened when the other persons were different than his but he remained staunch in his beliefs. He will be missed by all who knew him. May the Grace of God surround you during this time.
