

Shirley Ann Bouton

September 5, 2021

Appalachia, Virginia

Shirley Ann Bouton, 65, was born on March 1st, 1956 in Buffalo, New York and raised by Wilma Jean Hammer and step father, Bill Fields. Beloved friend of many and mother of five children, left us at the age of 65 Sunday, September 5, 2021 at Holston Valley Hospital, Kingsport, TN. Shirley loved watching the birds, listening to a variety of music, Shopping with friends, growing flowers and watching over kids. She had spent many years working with daycares, other facilities, or in her own free time to provide care for children. Shirley was known for her boundless positivity, her compassion for others, her cheerful laughter, and her sweet tooth.

She will be dearly missed, survived, and remembered by her children, Jeanmarie, Jonathan, Josh, Jonah, and Jackson; her sisters, Judy, Patty, Carol, and Karen; brothers, Michael and Tommy; her cousins, nephews, nieces, and grandchildren.

Graveside services will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Thursday, September 9, 2021 at the American Legion Cemetery in Big Stone Gap, VA with Rev. Johnny Flanary officiating.

“ She was a generous person who gave even when she had very little. She was a mother to children who never knew family and always did what she could to ensure her children and close friends had a Christmas no matter the circumstances. The family loves you, we will always be thinking about you and we are all at ease knowing you are with granny and our other loved ones who are know longer with us. You will be greatly missed and will always be in our hearts
