

Sue Newton

January 4, 2017

Appalachia, Virginia

Sue M. Newton, 81, went to be with her Lord January 4, 2017 with her loving family by her side.

She was a homemaker who loved cooking, quilting, baby-sitting, bowling and family get togethers in her home. She was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, aunt and friend. She always ended her conversations with a "I love you." She was a member of the First Baptist Church of Appalachia.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Fred Newton; son, Tom Newton; parents, James and Bertha Thompson; sisters, Ethel Stratton and Shirley Benzinger.

She is survived by a daughter-in-law, Betty Newton; granddaughter, Brett Newton; great-grandson, Eli; sisters, Nellie Honeycutt and husband Don, Nancy Collier; host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

The family will receive friends from 12 noon to 1:00 pm on Saturday, January 7, 2017 at the Roy A. Green Funeral Home, Appalachia. Services will begin at 1 pm in the funeral home chapel officiated by Rev. Nick Brewer. Burial will follow in the American Legion Cemetery. Pallbearers will be Joe Stratton, Alex Stratton, Teddy Collier, Mike Honeycutt, Christian Collier, Jeremy Price, Zac Stratton, and Blake Stratton. Honorary pallbearers are Don Honeycutt and Ray Craft. The family would like to extend a special thank you to Louise and the staff at Heritage Hall, Big Stone Gap for the care, compassion and love shown to our Sue and her family.

“ Sue was a wonderful, compassionate woman with a huge heart. My son stayed with Sue and Fred for many years, from the time he was an infant. I give great credit to Sue and Fred for the fine man he has become. They taught him so many things that have guided his life. Sue and Fred loved him dearly and he loved them.

My sincere condolences to Sue's family. I sincerely regret that I missed the service.
