Thelma Elizabeth Sharpe Sergent, 87, of Appalachia went to be with the Lord on April 2, 2015, after a brief illness. Mrs. Sergent passed peacefully with her loving daughter, Lynne, by her side.

Mrs. Sergent was a very sweet and loving lady, who was in turn very loved by her daughter, two granddaughters, and three great-grandchildren, and many other extended family members. Mrs. Sergent was born in Roda, VA in 1927 and was married to the late Ralph Sergent for 67 years.

Mrs. Sergent is survived by her daughter Lynne Tull and her husband John, granddaughters Katie Gosney and husband Jonathan, Joni Lynne Turner and husband Brandon, and three great-grandchildren, Caleb Gosney, Evelyn Elizabeth Gosney, and Kaitlyn Turner. Mrs. Sergent is also survived three brothers, Carroll Sharpe (Jean), Charles Sharpe, and Joe Sharpe (Gerry), and many special nieces and nephews.

“ One of the first times I had dinner with Lynne and her family, I didn't eat much. I went home and ate. In the meantime, Mrs. Sergent called mom because she was afraid that I hadn't liked what she cooked. That wasn't the case at all. Next time I was there, she made sure I ate...a lot. I'm just happy to know she is now in the presence of her Lord!
